

SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

CALIFORNIA RESOURCES CORPORATION

About CRC

California Resources Corporation is a California-based independent energy and carbon management company.

CRC is one of the largest oil and natural gas producers in the state and is expanding its carbon capture and storage business to help support California's climate goals.

Summer Intern Opportunities for Students Majoring In:

- Engineering (all disciplines)
- Business and Finance Fields
- Technical and IT Majors
- Social Sciences and Humanities
- Pre-Law
- Occupational and Industrial Health

Internship opportunities vary by year and business need.

Program Highlights

10-Week Summer Program (June-July)

Gain hands-on experience while working on meaningful, real-world projects.

Paid Internship Positions

All roles offer competitive hourly pay.

Moving Stipend

Support for eligible students relocating for the summer semester.

Locations

Positions are based in Long Beach and Bakersfield, California.

Industry Exposure

Develop a broader understanding of the energy industry through exposure to real-world utility operations and emerging technologies.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF ENERGY COMPANY

California is leading the way in the energy transition, and CRC is delivering solutions to meet today's energy demands while addressing the critical challenges of tomorrow. The primary factor in our success is our people.

We recognize that a motivated, well-trained, and diverse workforce is a strong competitive advantage. CRC is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and our recruiting, training, and career development programs are designed to help employees realize their full potential. Our diverse workforce of exceptional talent enriches the employee experience and contributes to an effective business model that helps local communities thrive.

Why Intern at CRC?

Mentorship from experienced industry professionals

Opportunities to connect with leaders across CRC

Build practical skills in project management, analytics, and innovation

Exposure to career pathways and future full-time roles

Interested in an internship with CRC?

To learn about available internship roles, or ask questions, please email crcrecruiting@crc.com